2) Accounting for Inflation: Optional for 'Big Bad Offenders' and/or for 'Greatest Leverage'...

Due to Unlawful Inflation the Value or Buying Power of our Labor has been Catastrophically Deflated...

All Claims are stated in lawful US Dollars, as defined by the lawful U.S. Constitution, which means for the purpose of this document, that the value of a lawful US Dollar is defined as:

- 371.25 grains of 0.999 (99.9%) Fine Silver per the Coinage Act of 1792.
- One Troy Ozt of 0.999 (99.9%) Fine Silver = 480 Grains.
- $371.25g / 480g = 0.7734375$ or 77.34375% of One Troy Ozt.
- One Lawful U.S.A. Dollar equals 77.34375% of one Troy Ounce 99.9% Fine Silver.

All Payments will be made using the equivalent value as 371.25 grains of 0.999 Fine Silver and the Spot Price of Silver as established by a lawful precious metals regulating agency, or the spot price on the U.S. Silver Market, whichever is the higher amount on or about the date(s) of violation(s).

For example, if the claim is to be paid in Deflated Federal Reserve Notes (FRN), these Federal Reserve Notes and/or Funds will only be accepted in payment as adjusted to the current Value of Silver as indicated above.

This 'Silver Multiplier' also applies to any and all accrued interest calculations.

For example, if the Spot value of 99.9% Fine Silver is $10.00 on the day of violation, then $10.00 multiplied by 0.7734375 equals $7.734375 Actual Value. One lawful US Dollar therefore equals 7.734375 FRNs.

Therefore, a Penalty of $10,000 in FRNs multiplied by the True Monetary Value would be $77,343.75 Lawful Dollars.

As per: <https://www.apmex.com/silver-price> The Spot Price of 1 oz Silver as of 3/31/21 is $24.49

- $$24.49 \times 0.7734375 = \18.941484375
- A $10,000 Penalty $\times $18.941484375 = $189,414.84$ Lawful Dollars
- A $75,000 Penalty $\times $18.941484375 = $1,420,611.32$ Lawful Dollars
- A $250,000 Penalty $\times $18.941484375 = $4,735,371.09$ Lawful Dollars

Note: I/We reserve the right to choose how I/we are compensated, in what species of Money and in which funds, currencies, denominations, etc., including but not limited to payment in 0.999 Fine Silver
